Warehouse Trainee Parts Department

Are you looking for your first step to a secure career?
Do you have a genuine interest in trucks and automotive?

Stillwell Trucks NSW is looking for an Apprentice to join our busy and successful multi-franchise dealership. First opening its doors in 1979, we have gone from strength to strength developing a solid reputation as a top new and used truck dealership in Sydney. We have proudly won numerous awards over the years and strive for continuous improvement in our processes and customer service.

This position offers a range of duties such as dispatch and receivables of parts orders, parts identification for repairs and service work and parts sales to customers. We offer full training and mentoring from our expert staff along with excellent working conditions with a friendly supportive team.

WHAT YOU NEED

- A drivers licence is strongly preferred
- A good mechanical aptitude
- Excellent literacy, numerical and verbal skills
- Willingness to learn
- Good eye for detail

To be successful in this role, candidates must be hard working and have a friendly and outgoing customer focus, competent computer skills and good presentation. Promotion within the Parts Department is a strong possibility in the long term.
