

DRIVER INDUCTION SPECIALIST

ENJOY THE COMBINATION OF TRANSPORT AND CUSTOMER SERVICE

Isuzu Trucks has successfully achieved its 30th consecutive year as market leader of the heavy vehicle/truck industry & Brisbane Isuzu is proudly Queensland's biggest Isuzu truck dealership. Located across Brisbane with three large sites, Archerfield in the south, Eagle Farm near the Airport & Burpengary in the north.

We are currently seeking a confident Driver Induction Specialist to join our Sales Team in our modern state of the art facilities. As a Driver Induction Specialist, you'll be part of a busy, customer focussed, and sales orientated team. There is no selling required in this position!

Working closely with the sales team, your duties will be to coordinate new truck deliveries, including the physical handover of the vehicle, as well as a variety of associated customer induction and administrative duties.

It will be your responsibility to ensure our customers have a clear understanding of the operation of their new truck, as such a Holder of a Certificate IV in Training & Assessment is highly preferred.

Brisbane Isuzu can offer:

- Excellent support
- Ongoing technical training
- Competitive Remuneration
- Long term career paths & promotional opportunities within the group

To be considered for this role you will be:

- HR Licenced
- Highly experienced in customer service
- Ambitious with a high attention for detail
- Well-groomed and confident
- Proud to represent Brisbane Isuzu.
- High level effective communication skills
- Strong organisational skills

Whilst dealership experience is not mandatory, some mechanical knowledge and an interest in the truck industry would be an advantage.

If you believe you possess the skills we are looking for and would like to bring your skills and enthusiasm to our team, please fill out the enquiry form.
